Dearest Jean,

This is Tom on the other side. There are certain things which I wished to tell you but was not able to do so and hence I opted for this mode of communication. We have been friends for a long time and my heart has started have feelings for you. This letter speaks what my heart has always wanted to say.

I Love You.

I have been in love with every small aspect of yours; the way you tap your hair, your ocean depth eyes and most prominently the way you understand me. I do not know whether you feel the same for me or not. And I shall never put any compulsion in this regard, even if my heart longs for you. I wish to convey that our friendship shall be as strong as ever, no matter what your decision is. Waiting for your reply with my breath intact,

Yours lovingly,

Tom
