

My love,

I was captivated by your smile ever since I saw you. I can't stop thinking about you. I can't stop thinking about your lips, your hair, your eyes, everything about you.

I feel so lucky now that I have you in my life. My life became totally different since the day you said "Yes". I will never forget that warm April night, while flowers were preparing to bloom for the next day, when you said you'll forever be mine.

Now there will be no colder nights and no days filled with sadness and loneliness. I'll never live a meaningless since I know now that you're the reason that I live

You bring forth warmth during winter and coolness in summer. You're like the cool summer breeze giving fresh air to all creatures around you.

Hope this relationship lasts forever, lasts till the end of our lives.

I want to grow old and spend the rest of my life with you.

No words can ever express the feelings that I have inside my heart. I can't stand not seeing your face just for a day so please let these hearts of ours be with each other.

Lovingly yours,

Harvey
