My Sweet Valeria,

I can only imagine this love I feel inside me for you. I am in no doubt that you love me and I love you. I hunger for the moment we will be together to hold and caress you gently like I do and to always know that you are my one and only.

My sweet love, I've been spending all of my days and nights thinking of you. I want to shout it on the mountain tops that I long and hunger for you, my sweet love.

My darling, every step I take, every breath I breathe, and every second that ticks in my heart, is for you. Sweet Valeria, you are my one true love.

Valeria, when I first laid my eyes on you, my heart skipped, when we shared our first kiss, my lips melted with love. I long for the day you and I will be at the altar taking those vows.

Sweet Valeria, now that you are mine, will you be my wife?

With Love, Tom
