

My dear sweetie,

I have never seen an angel....but I find one. It is you.

I am not a poet....but you made me a poet with your love.

I find God's presence....in your smile.

I have never asked a boon to God...but he gave a boon. It is you.

I do ... care and pray for you.

I love....the way you are.

I know...you realize my heart's language while seeing my eyes.

I want... you in my life forever.

Your care....making me precious.

You are my dream... I miss you.

When I see your eyes....I realizes 'True love is God!'

I LOVE YOU!
