

Sample Love Letter – Happy Anniversary

Baby,

Happy anniversary! Time sure does fly, doesn't it? Every day with you has been a blessing. I still thank my lucky stars that you said yes. You know I was thinking about this anniversary the other day and thinking that what we have is just like one of those silly romantic comedy chick flicks you love to watch. You know what I mean: the girl and guy meet, a series of crazy and improbable events happen, they fight then they make up and live happily ever after. I was just thinking that our relationship has been sort of like that, just with far fewer bad jokes.

The truth is that I can't imagine living my life with anyone else. You have been there for me through thick and thin, in good times and in bad times alike. You are my inspiration and the reason I can get out of bed every morning. I want to keep this good thing going and remain together forever. I still feel like a kid with you, all giddy and with butterflies in my stomach each time I see you. It's hard for me to believe you picked me. I pinch myself sometimes to make sure it's all real.

Happy anniversary, Baby. Here's to many more years to come.

With all my love,

---
