My love,

Nothing in this world seems to be more beautiful after meeting you. Your presence has changed my life completely and there is no way that I would like to think where I would have been if you would not have been a part of my life.

You are the one who makes me feel so special and the way you look at me makes me think that I am worth being looked at. If it was not you, I do not know where life would have taken me and what I would have been doing. There are many reasons for why you have been a sweetheart for me and all I would like to say is that I would be glad if I can be a part of your life forever and I will keep on loving you the way I do now.

Always yours

Tom
